

Professional Inspiration is an organization designed to motivate and inspire people to achieve their fullest potential in their professional and personal lives. Through entertaining, educating, and inspiring workshops and performances called the Motivational Experience™, participants are engaged by inspiring oration and creative activities that allow for interaction with the presenter and other participants. Motivational Experiences™ also allow for time for personal reflection, which stimulates real change.

Chanelle R. McCloud, the founder of Professional Inspiration, is a published writer, experienced educator, and an award-winning speaker and poet. For more information about how to schedule a Motivational Experience™ with Professional Inspiration, please call 216-534-9706 or send an inquiry to professionalinspiration@yahoo.com.
